

Your Angel Reading

How I see your Angel:

Your Angel seems to be a cloud of coloured light that rests near to you. About 5 or 6 feet tall, it swirls with colours - first red dominating, then yellow, then green and pink and blue and purple, and then it steadies into a pearly opalescent white glow near your right shoulder. It feels joyful and full of fun and laughter. Seeming to be more female than male at this time it suggests the name "Mary" will do if you need a name. Its compassion is boundless, its deep kindness, tenderness and affection for you go beyond what I can comprehend - they move me deeply.

Devas:

You are surrounded by Angels and some of them have an affinity with you, and you with them. Some are Devas (divine presences of nature). Here are some of the Devas that are near you:

Plant or tree deva: Silver Maple, to encourage growth and change and courage.

Animal deva: Turtle, to encourage connection with others, and wholeness. Its energy seems somehow complete and this is one of the things it offers you.

Mineral or crystal deva: Rose quartz, for its traditional enhancement of affection and love for self and others, but also for a sense of belonging.

What your Angel wants you to know about a current issue:

Something is finishing. Something completing - a karmic cycle of some sort. With this completion you may need to make a major decision and in this transitory phase new information may be revealed to you. The change is inevitable. This whole completion is a liberation - from blame and judgement, from a need to have things be a certain way. And it allows you to move toward a higher purpose. It's a rewarding time.

Until now you have been too busy and too tired see what is happening and in your efforts to keep things together, you have not had a chance to step back to take in the bigger picture. But you can now. Give yourself a break. Take a day to goof off or go to the beach to into the forest for a bit of rest and relaxation.

With this perspective you will be able to see things as they truly are and not just how you have longed for them to be. As the mist falls away, your choices will be clear and you'll know what to do. The choice will be simple and joyful. For it's all leading to change for the better, to new opportunities and good fortune.

What your Angel wants you to know about your life purpose:

Through this life you are looking at dissatisfaction - uneasiness or disappointment with your circumstances and learning how to recapture the delight in the everyday - remembering that it's the little things in life that bring the greatest happiness - the one hundred small pleasures in each day that add up to make a happy day - and happy life. You realize this life purpose by letting your natural kindness, warmth and cheer shine through - letting your lovely energy touch those you meet.
