

Your Love Reading

Your Love: Frank Jessop

How you see your role: You are the queen of the castle. You see your role as one who has a lot to give and gives a lot. You are loving and generous and have nothing to prove. You are marvelous.

What you want from him: You want him to be a bit more patient, less quick to move impulsively or angrily.

How he sees his role: He sees himself as a reliable and strong and loving man. Trustworthy. His role is to be a bit adventurous but reliable with that.

What he wants from you: He wants you to be a little less cautious.

Where you are headed:

Now to 3 months from now: It looks like fun. I see new energy and plenty of laughter.

3 - 6 months from now: I see no problems with the two of you at all. But there might be other family issues that trouble you a bit. Yet things are opening up so you will be able to resolve a conflict or move through an impasse. Take the time to pause and reflect, to see your choices before you move ahead. Resolution is coming that will bring peace and relief.

6 - 9 months from now: This is a time of new beginnings or renewed growth. I wonder if you may decide to add to your family. It's time to shine.

9 - 12 months from now: Something has changed the social order of things. Perhaps an unexpected windfall cleared the way for you to re-invent yourself. Or perhaps it is something else that has changed the domestic situation, a change of jobs, a child heading off to school or something else. However it came about, it's time to let go of your identification with who you used to be and get out there. I see success.

Overall: Your love looks beautiful. The only real challenge I see to it is from the expectations of others, or maybe you two have adopted these expectations from others thinking they are valid. Just remember that your life is your own, your choices are yours to make and if anyone feels you should be doing something differently, remember it is about them and not about you.

Your love looks splendid and balanced and long lasting.
